

An overview of research support and procedures in Psychology

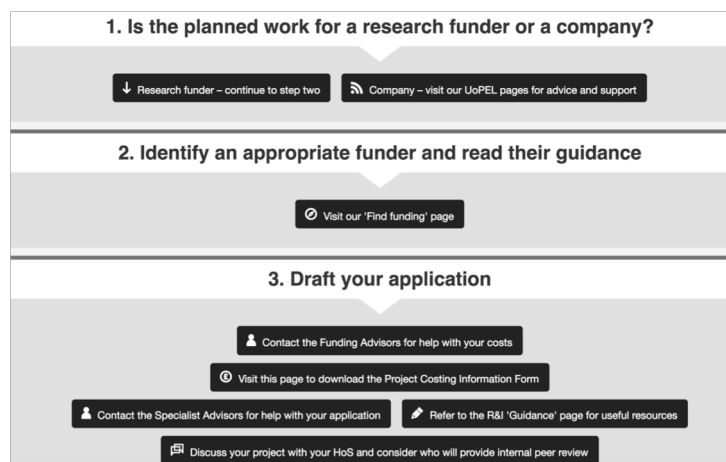

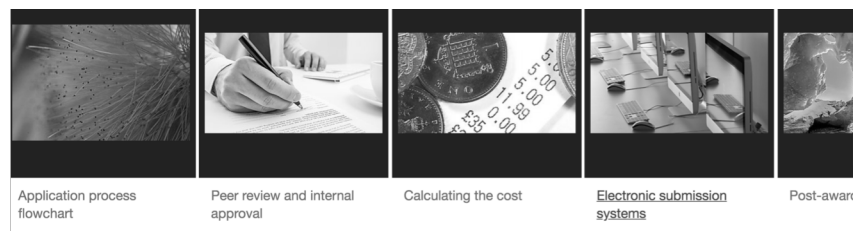

Presented at staff meeting on 28th Nov 2018

Jackie Andrade

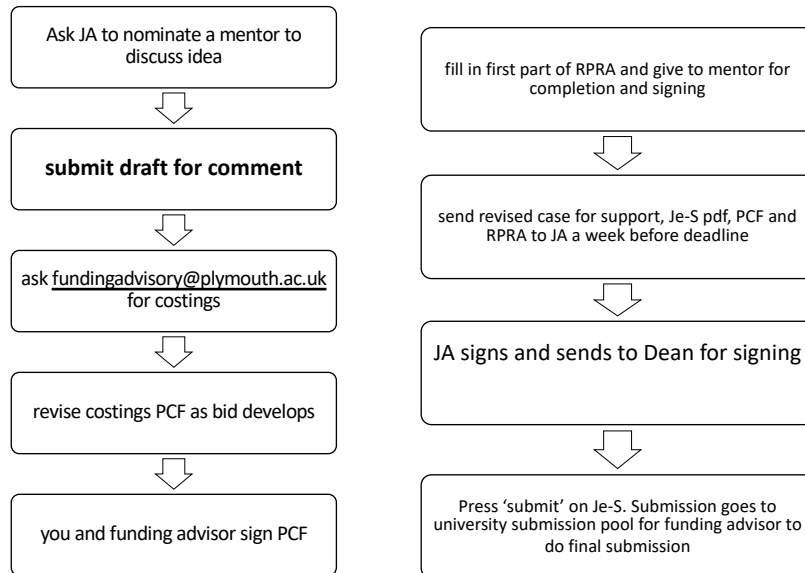

R&I support

<https://www.plymouth.ac.uk/research/support/>

Our business partner in R&I is Ulrike.Richards@plymouth.ac.uk

Support from the School

Our team of Research Mentors

More support from School

- Pump priming and conference money
- Seminar speakers extra day
- Andrew Derrington 13th May 2019
- Grant writing retreats:
 - 15th – 16th January, 2019
 - 21st – 22nd May, 2019

The Ten Key Sentences

<http://parkerderrington.com/get-the-framework-in-place-quickly/>

- ▶ 1) How the project will contribute to answering the big question
- ▶ 2) Why the big question is important.
- ▶ 3-5) Three research aims - things that we need to know in order to make the contribution to answering the big question.
- ▶ 6) Statement of the general research approach.
- ▶ 7-9) Statements explaining how each sub-project will provide the knowledge that we need for the corresponding research aim.
- ▶ 10) Statement about how the knowledge will be put to use.

Apply for grant writing retreat (2 pages)

- Answer Derrington's 10 questions
- Who do you need?
- What preparation do you need?
- Which funder? (sign up to Research Professional)
- Timescale: Which retreat? How long for preparation?

To Jackie Andrade by 19th December 2018